Ramapo Indian Hills Regional H.S. District

RIH Return to School Parent Preference Survey - Update

This is a follow-up to the Parent Preference Survey that was originally sent on Tuesday, September 1st. The deadline for completing this survey has been extended to Friday, September 18, 2020. If you already completed the survey, you do not need to complete it again unless you would like to change your initial preference. The District will take the most recent entry as your preference. If you have not completed the survey and do not complete the survey by Friday, September 18, 2020, the District will expect your child(ren) to attend school with their respective cohort beginning on Thursday, September 24, 2020. Please read the description found on the survey for more information.
